

DIRECTOR NOMINEE (Ministry Corporation)

AARON MALEY

Coming to faith...

I was fortunate to grow up in a family that was deeply devoted to Jesus and the gospel. I was saved at a young age and spent most of my childhood with my family in Papua New Guinea, where my parents were missionaries. As an adult, I have continued to grow in my faith and understanding of the Bible.

Christian service and leadership...

I have previously served in many different capacities and functions at The Met. Currently, I am teaching Sunday School and involved as a leader in Christian Service Brigade. I have also had the privilege to serve on the Ministry Corporation's of Directors since 2019.

Family...

Julie and I have been married for almost 17 years and have attended The Met together as a family for all of that time. We have three children, Josiah (15), Madison (13) and Alanah (10).

What excites me about The Met's mission...

I am excited to be a part of a church that focuses so heavily on the faithful teaching of Scripture. I am likewise encouraged by the focus to not only grow deeper in my own faith, but to be investing in reaching and teaching others, both in personal discipleship and in a broader missional sense.

Other relevant experience in preparation for this role...

I have been fortunate to have had the opportunity to serve as a Director on the Ministry Board for the last few years. I count it a privilege to be able to use the skills and passions that the Lord has given to me to serve Him and church in this way.

IONATHAN BROWN

Coming to faith...

I grew up in a Christian home where the Gospel was explained from an early age. I put my faith in Christ when I was 5 after feeling guilt for the wrongs I had done. My mom explained that I could only find ultimate forgiveness in Jesus. I understood that Jesus came to die in my place so that my sins could be forgiven and I could become a child of God.

Christian service and leadership...

Through high school and into university I volunteered as a camp counselor at a Christian camp in Muskoka. While in university I was involved in the leadership of our Power to Change group on campus. Since coming to The Met ten years ago, I've been a part of leading small groups in junior and senior high youth groups, Sunday School, Awana, and in METMen's Fellowship.

Family...

I met my wife, Tori, at the University of Western Ontario, where we were both involved in a Christian group on campus. We were married in London, Ontario shortly after graduation. She is a nurse and I work in orthopedic bracing. We have four children, Caleb (nine), Anna (seven), Peter (five) and Claire (three).

What excites me about The Met's mission...

I am excited to be part of a church where the gospel is preached weekly in the Sunday sermons, youth group, and children's ministries. I am encouraged each week to hear the truth of Scripture explained. I love that The Met seeks to equip members to reach not only our city, but also the world with the gospel. On a similar note, I love seeing the nations represented in our congregation.

Other relevant experience in preparation for this role...

God gives his grace, strength, and wisdom to those who seek it. I seek it and would continue to do so in this role. I have taken part in various leadership roles working with different people in some of the ministries mentioned above. I believe that these past experiences would help as I go forward. I am grateful to have taken part in the Elders Development Program, which helped clarify the responsibilities of an elder.
