

Studies & Seminars

MONDAY NIGHT - Bible Study Fellowship Beginnings is an in-depth, 28 week study in Genesis that explores God's original design and purpose for His people. We will learn of God's Creation, the Fall, Redemption and Restoration through the many heroes of faith found in the first book of the Bible. BSF combines weekly questions with online discussion groups, lecture and study notes for a deeper understanding and application of God's truth in our daily lives. The cost is free and everyone is invited! For further information and to register please contact Brian Forbes at bm-forbes@gmail.com

TUESDAY NIGHT 7:30-9:00 on zoom - METMen Apologetics Bible Study

I Peter 3:15 says: "Always be prepared to give an answer [apologetic] to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have." This series will focus on key questions and topics in biblical apologetics and will run from February 9 to the end of May (16 weeks) and will involve teaching, discussions and time for prayer and personal sharing among men, over Zoom.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT - Men's Discipleship group study in Matthew on-line. Studying the Bible is the most important book we can ever study. This group will be using the study guide called Follow Me for a study in the book of Matthew. There will be personal study time and getting together to go deeper in understanding. This quarter will be led by Brian Bartell and Kasper Reinink for more information please contact Brian at brianhbartell@gmail.com or Kasper at kreinink@sympatico.ca

METMen NextLevel groups - The focus of this small group ministry is to help men develop spiritual friendships which will bring them joy on their journey and accelerate their spiritual formation. Yes, men are more happy and more spiritually healthy when they spend meaningful time with other men of faith. METMen NextLevel groups meet on various nights throughout the week based on the availability of group members. NextLevel also trains men to lead small groups. Contact Pastor Ron for more information at rdudd@metbiblechurch.ca